

POLICY FOR INTERNATIONAL TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Companhia Energética de Minas Gerais - Cemig and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, including Cemig Distribuição S.A. (“Cemig D”) and Cemig Geração e Transmissão S.A. (“Cemig GT”), hereinafter referred to as “Cemig”, have assumed the commitment to value privacy and data protection of its employees, collaborators, service providers, suppliers, customers and other third parties with whom it interacts.

1.2. Aiming to ensure compliance with Law No. 13.709/2018, from August 14, 2018, (“General Personal Data Protection Law” or “LGPD”), Cemig has developed a privacy and data protection environment, assigning activities and responsibilities over lifecycle management of Personal Data at all levels of the organization.

1.3. The matter of processing of Personal Data to be transferred abroad deserves protection and justifies the existence of a specific policy for this purpose.

2. PURPOSE

2.1. The purpose of this Policy is to establish a uniform process related to the international transfer of Personal Data, ensuring proper implementation of controls and conditions enabling compliance with the General Data Protection Law.

3. APPLICATION

3.1. This Policy applies to Cemig, Cemig D, Cemig GT and other wholly-owned subsidiaries, and the procedures provided for therein must be applied in all situations of international transfer of Personal Data.

4. CONCEPTS AND DEFINITIONS

4.1. Holder of Data: Individual to whom refers the personal data used by the Company (employees, collaborators, service providers, suppliers, customers and other third parties with whom it interacts).

4.2. Personal data: All information related to the individual, identified or identifiable.

4.3. National Data Protection Authority - ANPD: Body of the federal government, part of the Presidency of the Republic, which is responsible for inspecting and applying sanctions in case of data processing carried out in breach of the legislation, through an administrative process ensuring the adversary proceeding, the full defense and the right of appeal.

4.4. Person in Charge for Processing Personal Data: This person operates as a communication channel between the controller, the Holders of Data and the National Data

Protection Authority – ANPD, as defined in the General Data Protection Law – LGPD, being represented, at Cemig, by the Deputy Director of Compliance Management, Corporate Risks and Internal Controls.

5. PRINCIPLES

5.1. Cemig carries out the activities of processing Personal Data always respecting good-faith and the following principles of the General Data Protection Law:

5.1.1. Purpose: Carrying out the processing of Personal Data for lawful, specific and explicit purposes, without the possibility of further processing, in a way that is incompatible with the purposes that were presented to its Holder.

5.1.2. Adequacy: Carrying out the processing of Personal Data according to the purposes informed to its Holder and in the context of the processing.

5.1.3. Need: The processing of Personal Data is limited to the minimum necessary to achieve the purposes, and its use is relevant and proportional to the intended treatment.

5.1.4. Free access: Ensuring the Holder of the Personal Data easy and free consultation about the use of their data.

5.1.5. Data quality: The Personal Data shall be updated and clear, according to the need and to comply with the purpose of the processing.

5.1.6. Transparency: Providing the Holder of Data clear, accurate and easily accessible information about the processing of their Data.

5.1.7. Safety: Using technical and administrative measures aimed at protecting Personal Data from unauthorized access and from accidental or unlawful situations of destruction, loss, alteration, communication or dissemination.

5.1.8. Prevention: Adopting measures to prevent the occurrence of damages due to the processing of Personal Data.

5.1.9. Non-discrimination: Failure to process Personal Data for discriminatory, unlawful or abusive purposes.

5.1.10. Liability and accountability: Adopting effective measures capable of proving respect and compliance with the Personal Data protection rules and the effectiveness of these measures.

6. PRIVACY POLICIES OF CEMIG

6.1. This document is guided pursuant to the Privacy Policies of Cemig containing information on the types of Personal Data collected, collection methods, purpose and legal bases for their treatment, as well as on the rights of the Holders of Personal Data.

7. EVENTS OF INTERNATIONAL TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA

7.1. Countries or international organizations providing a level of protection of Personal Data adequate to that provided for in the LGPD

7.1.1. The transfer of Personal Data may occur to all countries or international bodies defined as appropriate by the National Data Protection Authority - ANPD.

7.2. Upon evidence of principles and guarantees of LGPD

7.2.1. The international transfer of Personal Data can only take place when Cemig obtains evidence that the recipient of the Personal Data shall comply with the principles, the rights of the Holders of Data and the data protection regime provided for in LGPD.

7.2.2. This evidence may occur in one of the following:

- Using standard contractual clauses defined by ANPD;
- Presenting, by the entity receiving the information, seals, certificates and codes of conduct regularly issued, provided that they have been previously verified by ANPD;
- Executing, between Cemig and the data recipient, global corporate norms, verified by ANPD, defining the conditions for the international transfer;
- Signing agreements with specific clauses on data transfers, provided that they are previously verified by ANPD.

7.2.3. For all cases in which an approval or verification by ANPD is necessary, the request must be forwarded to the Person in Charge for Processing Personal Data and, only after his/her return, the transfer can be started.

7.2.4. Specific agreements must have, at a minimum, the following provisions:

- Obligations of the transferor of Personal Data, such as: (a) guaranteeing transparency to the Holder of Data with regard to the treatment to be carried out of the data; (b) having a structure to comply with the requests of the Holder of Personal Data, pursuant to art. 18 of LGPD and ANPD; (c) registering the processing of data; (d) making a copy of the contractual clauses regarding privacy available to ANPD and, eventually, to the Holders of Personal Data, provided that confidential information or business secrets are deleted.
- Obligations of the recipient of Personal Data, such as: (a) complying with the principles provided in the Brazilian General Data Protection Law; (b) adopting necessary technical and administrative measures to protect Personal Data against accidental or unlawful destruction, accidental alteration and unauthorized disclosure or access; (c) undertaking and ensuring any third party that may have access to Personal Data to also adopt the same measures to protect Personal Data;

- (d) maintaining a structure to comply with the rights of the holders of Personal Data, similarly to what is provided for in LGPD.
- Provisions forcing the importer of Personal Data to provide information related to the processing of Personal Data for the purpose of complying with the requirements of ANPD, assisting in defenses before judicial or administrative bodies, and for complying with the rights of the holders of Personal Data.
 - Clause providing full responsibility to a third party for the compensation of any and all damages that Cemig may have, if held liable before ANPD or by any judicial or administrative authority, due to irregularities in processing Personal Data thereby caused.
 - Procedures to be adopted upon termination of the agreement, containing: (a) cases of suspension of the use of Personal Data; (b) cases of deletion or destruction of Personal Data after completion of the purpose.
 - Detailed description of the transfer of Personal Data, providing: (a) information on the purpose of the transfer of Personal Data; (b) information about the categories of Personal Data transferred; (c) information about the recipients who shall have access to Personal Data; (d) criteria for the protection of Personal Data that shall be applied by the recipient abroad; (e) the person responsible for complying with the rights related to the protection of Personal Data; (f) security mechanisms used by the recipient of Personal Data to ensure its protection.

7.2.5. Amendments to the minimum contractual provisions mentioned in sub-item 7.2.4, as a result of requests from the counterparty, must be previously authorized by the Data Protection & Privacy Committee (DPPC).

7.3. International Legal Cooperation

7.3.1. The international transfer may occur when it is necessary for international legal cooperation between public intelligence, investigation and prosecution agencies, under the terms of International Law and related legislation in force in Brazil.

7.3.2. International transfers must be previously approved by the Data Protection & Privacy Committee (DPPC)

7.4. Consent of the Holder of Personal Data

7.4.1. The international transfer of Personal Data is possible when the holder provides his/her specific and highlighted consent.

7.5. Compliance with Legal or Regulatory Obligation

7.5.1. The international transfer may be carried out to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation.

7.5.2. The Person in Charge for Processing Data shall be informed for registration purposes.

7.6. Regular Exercise of Rights

7.6.1. It is included in the events of possibility of international transfer the Personal Data necessary to the regular exercise of rights, in legal or administrative proceedings of which Cemig is part, including working acts.

7.6.2. The Person in Charge for Processing Data shall be informed for registration purposes.

7.7. Execution of Agreements

7.7.1. The international transfer may occur if it is necessary for the compliance with the agreement entered into between Cemig and the Holder of Data.

7.7.2. The Person in Charge for Processing Data shall be informed for registration purposes.

7.8. Other Contexts

7.8.1. For exceptional cases not provided in this instrument, the Data Protection & Privacy Committee (DPPC) may authorize the international transfer of Personal Data, for example in cases authorized by ANPD, for the protection of the life or physical safety of the Data Subject or of third parties, or even compliance with international agreements or the execution of public policies.

8. RESPONSIBILITY OF CEMIG

8.1. Cemig is responsible for ensuring legal compliance applicable to data protection, when carrying out an international transfer of Personal Data.

8.2. All Cemig employees, collaborators and/or service providers who process Personal Data are responsible for the protection and compliance of Personal Data with legal policies and procedures.

9. RECORDS OF OPERATIONS OF PROCESSING

9.1. Cemig must keep all records of the operations for processing Personal Data it carries out, including international transfers.

9.2. Each person responsible for a business area must inform the Person in Charge for Processing Personal Data of any change in their data processing processes involving international transfer.

10. FINAL PROVISIONS

10.1. For the avoidance of doubts on this Policy, the Holder of Data may contact CEMIG through the email privacidade@cemig.com.br.

10.2. This Policy may be updated whenever necessary.

* Policy approved by the Board of Directors on July 16, 2021